

175th Anniversary Tour Programme

Sunday 2 June

- Arrive in London
- Welcome dinner

Monday 3 June

- Orientation into London with a breakfast lecture
- Visit to great sites of London
- Evensong in Westminster Abbey
- Participants free to make their own evening arrangements

Tuesday 4 June

- Travel by train to Dulverton and visit to the farm where George Williams spent his childhood
- Visit a number of YMCAs in the region
- Dinner and overnight stay in Exeter

Wednesday 5 June

- Visit YMCA programmes in and around Exeter
- Travel back to London
- Participants free to make their own evening arrangements

Thursday 6 June

- Sir George Williams guided tour of St Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey, which have both been the backdrop to many Global YMCA celebrations, including the 1894 Jubilee, and the 100th and 150th celebrations.
- Celebration and Thanksgiving Service in central London
- Reception in the Palace of Westminster, home of the British Government. At the reception, delegates will meet key people from across YMCA, including YMCA supporters, and experience the launch of the YMCA175 Exhibition and Road Show
- Evening celebration dinner

Friday 7 June

- Tailored programme of visits to London YMCAs, including lunch

What is included

- Accommodation between Sunday 2 June and Friday 7 June
- Welcome dinner on Sunday 2 June
- Breakfast lecture and travel around London, including entrance fees where required
- Food, accommodation and travel to Dulverton
- Breakfast, visits and travel to and from Exeter
- Celebration breakfast
- Guided Sir George Williams Tour
- Celebration and Thanksgiving service
- Entrance into St Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey
- Celebration reception at the Palace of Westminster
- Celebration dinner

What is not included

- Flights to London
- Visas were required
- Dinner on Monday and Wednesday evening

For further information, please contact Ken Montgomery

E: ken.montgomery@ymca.org.uk

T: +44 20 7186 9576

www.ymca.org.uk/anniversary-tour